Among the many compliments we receive from [students], the one we hear the most is ‘Thanks for supplying so quickly.”

Kip Darling, Library Supervisor, Birmingham City University

For librarians challenged by tighter budgets, Kip Darling, Library Supervisor specializing in library systems and interlibrary loans at BCU, uncovers how a more automated resource-sharing strategy activated a virtuous cycle at the Library.

“Among the many compliments we receive from [students], the one we hear the most is ‘Thanks for supplying so quickly.”

RapidILL has been a real game changer for Birmingham City University’s Library & Learning Resources department, helping us to ‘Go Go Go’ and meet our customers’ Inter-Library Loan needs while saving money, time and increasing our network exponentially. Let me explain:

Go farther!

We have been delighted to interact with a selection of over 600 libraries around the world, from those in neighbouring cities to those over 11,000 miles away. Thanks to RapidILL we have been able to ‘go farther’ than ever before without taking additional steps. With the time saved, we’ve been able to focus on providing effective lending services, sharing our resources with the library community and building new partnerships.

Go faster!

We were amazed to see our average turnaround time for articles and chapters reduce from several days to just 7 hours on average. Thanks to a fully integrated, automated RapidILL workflow, we can now ‘go faster’ than we ever dreamed possible! Our staff took to the new system like ducks to water, and our customers are happier than ever. Among the many compliments we receive from customers, the one we hear the most is “Thanks for supplying so quickly.”

Go cheaper!

We were astonished to see the average price of documents drop by 85% in the first year of our subscription, when compared with what we paid our previous supplier. So thanks to RapidILL, we have been able to ‘go cheaper’ too, enabling us to reinvest the savings from our ILL service in building up our own library collections.

If you haven’t subscribed yet, what are you waiting for? ‘Go Go Go’ and do it now! You can thank us later.

What’s the difference between RapidILL and Rapido?

Ex Libris unifies its resource-sharing community under Rapido. Rapido offers the automation capabilities of RapidILL, while making it easier for patrons to borrow titles.

Gain time and budget back to invest in your library. Rapido integrates the RapidILL technology with your ILS to connect you to libraries worldwide. It automatically processes interlibrary loan requests from patrons.

Give more independence to your users. They can borrow physical and digital titles on the library’s interface in two clicks. Rapido gets rid of the interlibrary loan forms.

Is Rapido the right fit for your library?
